

PRIVACY POLICY

The Ohio Chapter, American Academy of Pediatrics adheres to the following privacy standards regarding your private information:

Ohio AAP is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We only have access to/collect information that you voluntarily provide to us via email or other direct contact.

We will use information provided to us to respond to you and will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization, other than as necessary to fulfill your request.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to tell you about programs, events, or changes to this privacy policy.

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time, inquire as to the data, if any, that we have about you, or ask us to delete or update data by contacting us via the email address or phone number given on our website.

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the Web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, you should contact us immediately via telephone at 614.846.6258 or via email chapter@ohioaap.org.
